

Chiara Eva Catalano, Researcher at CNR IMATI (Institute of Applied Mathematics and Information Technologies – National Research Council of Italy)

The research activity mainly concerns geometric modelling and semantic enrichment of 3D models in several application contexts, including cultural heritage. Recently, her interests have extended to innovative interfaces for the communication and consumption of cultural heritage and arts in a very interdisciplinary perspective.